

Youth Minister Job Description

The Chinese Gospel Church of Massachusetts (CGCM) is a nondenominational evangelical Christian church located approximately 30 miles west of Boston. The church is composed of Mandarin, Cantonese and English congregants and worship services.

CGCM is looking to hire a full time youth minister to shepherd the high school and middle school students within the church body. The youth ministry of CGCM is part of the larger English ministry congregation (LifeLight).

The youth minister must be a committed follower of Jesus who is called by God to care for a group of approximately 50-60 Asian American teenagers. Previous experience working in an Asian American context is preferred but not required.

The youth minister is responsible for setting the vision and goals of the youth ministry program within the larger context of the vision of CGCM. An essential component of this position will involve: Friday Night/Sunday Morning youth gatherings, teaching, discipleship, visitation, team building, curriculum development, volunteer recruitment/training, parent communication, budgetary management, and monthly reports and accountability to the church elder board.

Other responsibilities will include: planning, assisting in participating in annual winter conferences, summer mission trips, other local outreach events, and partnering with the English ministry pastor to help organize Sunday worship services, preaching in the joint English congregation once a month.
